

Missions Prophecy

October 2002

“I have called this church to reach the nations. It is your job; it is your position; it is your post. It is what you must do to fulfill your call, and your dreams will come true as you do what I’ve called you to do for missions. I’ve called you to pray and I’ve called you to give and I’ve called you to go. And I say to you that as you sow those seeds into missions, and do those prayers, and do those things that I’m placing in your heart, I will bring everything you need into your life, and it will be quick, and it will be easy, and it will be grand, and it will take you to a land, to a place, to a power and a position that you have yearned for and longed for and didn’t know how to get to. For the gateway is missions, says the Lord. Pray for missions, give to missions, be willing to go to missions, and I the Lord thy God, will set all things in order for this church, says the Lord. Hallelujah!”
