

World Changer Confession

I am a gift that will keep on giving.

I am a World Changer.

I seek for and invest into the lives of others.

I invest in the lives of others on a daily basis.

This is my way of life and I insist on living this way.

God is sending people across my path so that I can be a part of bringing about change in their lives.

I am a World Changer.